UNINTERESTING CONTEST WITH SCORE OF 13-5.

"These Short Liners remind me of my aunt's folks—they never did amount to much," casually remarked an enthusiast of the American game at Walker's field yesterday, and everybody who happened to be caught there realized just how near he was to voicing the truth. This unfortunate team of select young lads was everlastingly trimmed by the Ogdens. The score was 13 to 5, but that doesn't begin to tell how bad it was.

Sombody remarked a few games back in the early season that the Short Liners were an unlucky aggregation. Yes, that's right, if rotten ball playing of the funeral type constitutes unluckiness. Eleven errors in fielding work, together with eighteen hits off Kingman—who, by the way, played better than his alleged support—certainly do not assist very materially in making good ball playing or in bringing upon the heads of the players the favor of the gods.

Clark Wouldn't Run.

When the score ran up and up, the people in the grand stand began to get weary. "Ah, say, Clark," yelled a tired spectator, "let up a little; we want to go home."

"I'd like to," replied the captain of the Gimlinites, "but they won't let us. We can't run, away, you know, and if they want to present us with runs, we can't help it."

The Ogdens men played gilt-edged ball right through. Only one error attached itself to their score, and that belonged to Hansford and was almost excusable. Of course they won, for they played baseball. And as to the Short Liners—well, they'd better get in their class. A game with the Butchers or the Live Oaks would be about right.

Berkley was about the only one of the Ogdens who succeeded in capturing hits that figured at the right time. Two three-baggers that he sent out among the daisies brought in three of the runs. He was like an ice cream soda in the Sahara.

They go to Ogdens to play today. Here's the score:

Close Game and Small Score at the Idaho City.

(Special to The Herald.)
Pocatello, Idaho, July 14.—The first of a series of four games to be played here between the Rio Grandes and the Pocatellos was pulled off this afternoon and resulted in a victory for the home team, which places them even with the Rios in the contest for the pennant. The score by innings:

Shorts Go to Ogden.

(Special to The Herald.)

Ogden, July 14.—Tomorrow the Shore Lines will meet the Ogden team at Glenwood field. The diamond is being worked down and is in much better shape than ever before. Gierhard will pitch for the locals.

In the last half or the ninth inning Chas. Kuran got one of his fingers badly hurt and will probably not be able to play with the team in the remaining three games. Today's and Sunday's are scheduled league games, while those of Monday and Tuesday will be exhibition games arranged on account of the Democratic and Populist state conventions, which convene here Tuesday.

Bankers Win at Provo.

(Special to The Herald.)
Provo, July 14.—The Bankers of Salt Lake met the Provo first nine this afternoon and Provo was defeated by a score of 14 to 4. It was a good game up to the fifth inning, when Provo went to pieces.

Payson Boys Beaten.
(Special Correspondence.)
Ephraim, July 14.—The Payson ball tossers met their first defeat of the season at the hands of the Reds on the local base ball park yesterday afternoon and the Reds added one more triumph to their list of victories by a score of 13 to 12.

The fielding of the Reds was very ragged, in fact about the yellowest exhibition in that line they have ever given. But the way they fell on to the Reds' delivery and lined out base hits in a measure makes up for their deficiency in fielding.

The Payson boys played a very nice field game but they were weak at the stick.

Kaysville Won From Centerville.

Those who went out to the Lagoon yesterday had an opportunity to witness one of the best baseball games that has been played at that resort since the old Lagoon team was disbanded. The contest was between the Kaysville and Centerville amateur teams, and both sides played an excellent game, making eight runs each in the seventh inning. After a series of four consecutive goose eggs for either side, the Centerville boys went to pieces and the Kaysville boys played a very nice field game but they were weak at the stick.

Thursday Night.

Pittsburgh, 6; Chicago, 1.
Chicago, July 14.—Pittsburgh beat Chicago today by hitting Callahan very freely

English and Irish champion, who was fifth with six metres and seventy-one centimetres.

Including event of the day, the 400 metres hurdle, brought only four men to the tape, although there were ten entries. Both the best and the American, Tewksbury of the University of Pennsylvania taking the first, and Lewis, of Syracuse, second. Nedvod, an Austrian, was unplaced. Orion of the University of Pennsylvania secured the second heat from Tausin, a Frenchman, his only competitor. Lewis, Tewksbury, Orion and Tausin were on a side in the final. The time of neither heat was worth mentioning, as none of the Americans gave themselves any unnecessary exertion.

LANG MEETS TURK.

Hali Adali Proposes to Throw Charley Four Times in An Hour.

Hali Adali, the wonderful wrestler from the land of the sultan, will meet Charley Lang at the Salt Palace on Thursday night and every lover of sport will have a chance to enjoy himself. Hali showed in his several matches of last week that he is to be considered in the light of a phenom. Lang's record is well known and he has never been defeated and has put on their backs such men as Billy Muldoon, Duncan C. Ross and the renowned Jap. MICHAEL WON FROM McFARLAND

ALSO CLIPPED 21 2-5 SECONDS OFF TWENTY-MILE RECORD.

An Accident to McFarland's Motor in Last Part of Race Put Him Out of It.

New York, July 14.—In the presence of 7,000 spectators, with scarcely a breeze to interfere with the riders, Jimmy Michael defeated Floyd McFarland of San Jose, Cal., in a mile, motor-paced race at the Manhattan track this afternoon. He also clipped 21 2-5 seconds off the track record for the finish of the mile.

The conditions of the race were that if an accident happened to either of the riders with which they were to be treated, the men were to be recalled and the race started anew. This saved Michael from defeat by a narrow margin. Michael maintained his lead for one lap on the first attempt, but was then passed by McFarland, who came within five yards of the first mile. Before the latter had reached the tape, however, Michael signalled to the judges that his motor had broken a chain and he was just in time to save the race by continuing to ride the race as best he could.

A new machine was brought out and, after a few minutes' delay, Michael was the first to be picked up. He got in behind his pace within the first 100 yards, with his hands on the handlebars. McFarland caught up on the back stretch and led by about ten yards during the first mile. Michael, however, was in the lead by the time he had reached the tape. Michael's paces worked like levers and got ahead of the leader by the time he had reached the tape.
